WEDDING BELLS.

Church-Lipscomb.

Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs.
Eugene Lochridge on South Garden street, Miss Adelaide Laura Lipscomb was united in marriage to Mr.
Ed Church, Rev. P. A. Sowell officiating.

About this marriage there hangs an interesting bit of romance. Mr.
Church and Miss Lipscomb had been "friends" in the sense of the word as used in lovers' lore—for several years, and so the story goes, were engaged to be married when Mr.
Church removed from here about two years ago. For some reason, however, the marriage was postponed, and, as appears from subsequent events, the love between the two began to wane, and the engagement was broken off.

When the two regiments of Mississippi volunteers were brought here some weeks ago, one among the number was Sergeant Carl Hugo Drake. A strong friendship grew up between Miss Lipscomb and Sergeant Drake, and this friendship quickly ripened into love. The result was that their marriage was publicly announced in the HERALD last week, and the wedding was to have taken place last Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Lipscomb, on South Main street. Cards were issued announcing the marriage, and all preparations had been made for the event.

Several days ago, however, Mr.
Church arrived in the city, and this made a change in the program. He began immediately with a true lover's ardor to ingratiate himself once more into the affections of the lady who had always been first in his heart's affection, and to try to regain the hand that had once been promised to him. As with him so with her; the old love was the strongest, and being wooed the young lady quickly returned to her first love. The remainder of the story is told in the first paragraph of this article.

Mr. and Mrs. Church left Tuesday evening on the north-bound train for Nashville, and will go from there to McMinnville, Tenn., where they will reside for the present.

The bride is a fascinating young lady, and possesses many noble qualities. Mr. Church formerly lived at this place, but is now a traveling representative for a machine company. He is a half brother to Mr. R. C. Church of this city, and a highly respected and deserving young man. The many friends of these two popular young people will extend to them their congratulations and best wishes for a happy married life.

Rucker-Sheppard.

Yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride on North High street, the rites of matrimony were solemnized between Miss Katherine Sheppard and Dr. W. L. Rucker, of Little Rock, Ark.

The parlor had been prettily decorated for the occasion with palms, mistletoe and evergreens. The bride and groom entered from an adjoining room while the sweet notes of Mendelssohn's wedding march were being played by Miss Pearl Phelan.
Dr. F. B. Webb met the bridal pair, and impressively pronounced the ceremony which made them man and wife. The bride was handsomely attired in a traveling costume.
Dr. and Mrs. Rucker left on the 5:30 train for Little Rock, Ark., where they will make their home.

The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Sheppard of this city, and adds to her personal charms the qualifications of a true helpmeet. Dr. Rucker is a rising young dentist, and is at present associated with Dr. R. J. Southworth, of Little Rock, Ark. The HERALD joins with the many friends of the happy couple in wishing them much success and happiness in their new relations.

A Double Wedding.

On last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the brides near Berlin, Miss Cornelia Morton and Mr. W. E. Hardison and Miss May Morton and Mr. Will Cheek were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, both couples being married under the same ceremony, which was said by Elder J. H. Morton, father of the brides. A large number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties were in attendance. After the ceremony, the bridal party repaired to the home of Mr. F. M. Hardison, near Leftwich bridge, where a dining was tendered them, and afterwards they went to the home of Mr. John Cheek, where they were given a reception. The brides are both charming young ladies, and have many friends who wish for them and the companions they have chosen for life, much happiness. Mr. Hardison is a school teacher by profession and Mr. Cheek is an industrious young farmer, and both are highly respected and deserving young men.

Cameron-Seay.

Mr. A. Sidney Cameron, formerly of this place, but now of Sheffield, Ala., was united in marriage to Miss Minnie Seay, of Sheffield, at Iron City last Saturday night. The marriage was very much of a surprise to the relatives and friends of Mr.
Cameron in this city. As both of the parties were under age, they had to come to Tennessee in order to have the nuptials celebrated. Mr.
Cameron is a son of Mr. W. D.
Cameron, of this city, and is a young man for whom everyone has the highest respect. He has been in Sheffield for several years past in the employ of the Nashville, Florence & Sheffield railroad, and now occupies the position of clerk in the Superintendent's office at that place.
His many friends here wish for him and his bride a future of much happiness.

Tindell-Gray.

Mr. James Tindell and Miss Nannie Gray were united in marriage last Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, Mr. R. Gray, near Leftwich Bridge, Elder Sewell officiating. A reception was tendered the bride and groom at the residence of the groom's father, Mr. Harry Tindell.

Another Double Wedding.

A double wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Richard Haywood, on Knob Creek, last Wednesday afternoon, when Rev. S. L.
Gupton pronounced the ceremony which bound together the hearts and lives of Mr. Thomas Latta and Miss Hattie Sellers and Mr. A. J.
Marshall and Miss Nannie Haywood. After the ceremony a reception was tendered the bridal party at the home of Mr. Latta near Santa Fe. The contracting parties are all well-known and highly respected young people, and they have the very best wishes of many friends.

Hardison-Jones.

Miss Madie Jones, of Andrews, and Mr. Porter Hardison, of the Leftwich Bridge neighborhood, were married last Friday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sim Watson in this city. Esquire Tom Hardison performing the ceremony. The marriage was a green-gown affair.

Wedding Postponed.

Owing to the critical illness of Mr.
Wm. Moses, Jr., all invitations to the marriage of Mr. Wm. Moses, Jr., to Miss Mary Gaut, are recalled.

CHRISTMAS DINNERS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stephenson, of Ashwood, entertained at a family dining last Tuesday. To say that it was one of Mrs. Stephenson's din-ings is to speak of it in the most complimentary terms possible. The sentiment of the Christmas season was revealed in each course as it came. In the decorations, in the good cheer and happiness of the guests, and the gracious hospitality of host and hostess. Those present were Mrs. Alice Tyndall, Mr. and Mrs.
T. N. Jones, Mrs. Hattie Jones, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Lander and Master Frank Lander, Jr.

One of the pleasant social functions of the week was a six o'clock dinner Monday evening, given by Rev. and Mrs. Thompson, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. J. F.
Brownlow and their guests—Mrs.
Loven and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Loven. Good cheer seasoned the delicious feast.

Marguerite, the charming little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S.
Alcorn, entertained her little friends, Misses Nell Davis and Estelle Peters, with a Christmas dinner.

Miss Mary Ridley and Mr. Will Ridley gave an elegant Christmas dinner to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dale, Misses Annie Evans, Annie Williamson and Louise Frierson, last Sunday.

Little Miss Annie Mai Cook entertained several of her friends with a Christmas dinner.

ant, is visiting relatives and friends here.

Messrs. Eugene and Herbert Guest came up from Florence last Saturday to spend the holidays with relatives here.

From Tuesday evening until Friday evening of last week Baggage Master Harrison Bullard was kept busy day and night checking the soldiers' baggage, and had to be assisted by Sam Burchiel, of Nashville. During the time mentioned 1,155 pieces of baggage were checked, independent of the baggage of other passengers.

Mrs. Annie Cherry, of Nashville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. A.
Quarterman.

Mrs. Leota Cartwright, of Nashville, spent several days with relatives here the past week.

Frank Bennett has been on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Janie Trantham has moved back to her place in South Columbia.

George and Curran Race are both seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. Eugene Guest and little daughter will leave this week for their home in Florence.

Rev. J. F. Tinnon and son Eugene, of Cedar Hill, were here this week.

Miss Willie Belle Grimes, we are glad to report, is recovering from a spell of sickness.

Mr. R. E. Hogan is confined to his bed with the grip.

Mr. John Trotwood Moore continues to improve.

Miss Mamie Williamson has been sick for the past week.

Miss Emma Pickens has recovered from a spell of sickness.

William Evans has recovered from a spell of sickness.

Mrs. James Roberts is on the sick list this week with the grip.

Mr. F. M. Nichols has been on the sick list for the past two weeks.

Mrs. W. F. Embry and Mrs. W. B.
Embry are both ill with the grip.

Miss Annie Bennett has been sick this week, but is now improving.

Mrs. W. L. Davis, we are sorry to report, is suffering from an attack of grip.

Mrs. Ed Gordon has been a great sufferer this week from acute indigestion.

Dr. A. O. Kennedy was quite sick the first of the week, but is able to sit up now.

Mr. T. N. Fiquers and daughter, Miss Willie Fiquers, are suffering with the grip.

Mrs. James McKennon and daughter Miss Wilburn, are on the sick list this week.

Circuit Court Clerk W. F. Embry has been numbered with the sick the past week.

Mr. Jackson Alexander and daughters, Misses Fannie and Mattie, are on the sick list.

Mrs. Lizzie Frierson, who has had a severe attack of the grip, continues to improve slowly.

Mr. Carriek Fariss is out again after being confined to his bed for several days with illness.

Mrs. S. E. Thompson and daughter, Miss Clara Thompson, are numbered among the sick.

Rush Gresham has been on the sick list this week, but we are glad to report, is now improving.

Mr. W. H. Bell, clerk for J. G.
Daimwood, is sick with the grip at his home at Carter's Creek.

Mrs. W. B. Greenlaw and Miss Pearl Province were among the many unfortunates afflicted with the grip.

Mrs. H. P. Fiquers has been quite sick for the past week, and we are sorry to say that her condition was unimproved yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Ketchum, the barber, has been seriously ill with pneumonia, but his friends will be glad to hear that he is now improving.

Mr. J. C. Taylor is numbered among the unfortunates on the sick list. He was quite sick for a day or two but is recovering.

Dr. Merrill, the dentist, has been confined to his bed for a week, with pneumonia. He is better now, and expects to be out in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rutledge and little daughter Nettie May, and Mrs.
Rutledge's father, Mr. Gilchrist, are all ill with the prevalent malady.

Mr. J. B. F. Dowell was taken suddenly ill yesterday, and had to have several physicians with him. It is to be hoped that he will soon recover.

Mr. W. M. Moore, who was on the sick list last week but was out again this week, had a relapse last Wednesday night and was quite sick again.

Mr. W. C. Aydelott, the HERALD's foreman, and Mrs. Aydelott and Frank Aydelott, have all been confined to their beds this week with the grip.

Alma Tucker, of the HERALD's typographical force, has been confined to his room for the past week with the grip. We are glad to report, however, that he is now improving.

Mr. A. J. (Gov.) Nichols had to close his store for awhile yesterday, as both he and his clerk, Mr. Clifford Adkisson, had fallen victims to the grip. Mr. Adkisson, however, has recovered sufficiently to be at his post again.

Mr. W. H. Willson was laid up with the prevalent cold last Monday and Tuesday; but his bachelor quarters got too lonesome, and he pulled himself out Wednesday, though still coughing.

Little Miss Olive Dobbins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dobbins, has been confined to her bed nearly all this pretty Christmas week, with a severe cold and fever. Fortunately for Olive, however, she can always find companions in her books.
She is better now.

Oscar Church, the little son of Mr.
Robt. C. Church, was stricken suddenly ill last Sunday with meningitis, and grew rapidly worse, until in a few hours his life was despaired of. From Sunday night until Tuesday morning he was totally unconscious, but Tuesday he showed some faint signs of returning consciousness, and this improvement continued through Wednesday, until he came to recognize anyone who came to his bedside, and to answer, by nodding or shaking his head, questions asked him; his tongue being paralyzed he could not talk.
At this time, some hope for his recovery was entertained; but Wednesday night he began to fail again, and at our hour of going to press it is not thought that he can survive much longer. He is an unusually bright, friendly, sociable boy; there was not another one of his size and age in Columbia better known or more universally liked. Always polite, accommodating, bright and happy, he carried sunshine in his heart and on his face, and was an inspiration to others to cheer up and smile back at him. He was a little christian as well, thoughtful, dutiful, regular at the Sunday-school and church and communion table; so whether he lives or dies, God knows best, and a bright reward and happy home awaits him. His departure—if it must be so—is more to others than to him. He was the joy and hope of the household; and for
